If You Have An Existing Twitter Account:

When posting items about your MWO shows, end all of your “tweets” and links with: #MWO. This “#MWO” tag will help spread the word and keep conversations about MWO easily searchable (even with other media such as YouTube). We will also “re-Tweet” many messages others post with the correct hashtag “#MWO” so you reach an even wider audience.

Starting on Twitter

Twitter is a simple microblogging tool that you might find very useful, however it is time consuming. If you are not already on Twitter, we only recommend starting it if you are able to devote the time. It is valuable, but not as important as a strong Facebook or YouTube presence.
